Government of West Bengal
Education Department
Education Branch

No. 7538-Edn
gp-196/58 , dated Calcutta, the 3rd July, 1958

From: Shri P. N. San Gupta, M.Sc.,
Deputy Secretary to the Govt. of West Bengal.

To : The Director of Public Instruction, West Bengal.

Subject:- Second Five Year Plan-Secondary Education-Improvement and expansion of Teachers' Training Facilities(Including training in guidance)-Establishment of Sponsored Teachers' Training Colloge at Jalpaiguri.

Reference: His letter No. 2217, dated the 7th May, 1958.

In conformity with the principles of improvement and expansion of teachers' training facilities for Secondary Schools, the State Government have formulated proposal for the setting up of Teachers' Training Colloge under the programme for 1958-59.

2. The Government of India in the Ministry of Education letter No. F.4-4/57-C.W., dated the 5th February, 1957 have agreed to bear 50% of the cost on the scheme.

3. The scheme as drawn up by the Director of Public Instruction, West Bengal has been considered by the Government and they are now pleased to approve of the establishment of a Teachers' Training Colloge for Secondary School Teachers at Jalpaiguri. The authorities of the A.C.College, Jalpaiguri have agreed to transfer the old buildings and add land of the Colloge to Government as a free gift for accomodation of the Teachers' Training Colloge on condition that the Training Colloge should be named as "Ananda Chandra Training Colloge". The colloge will be run as a sponsored institution by a Governing Body to be constituted with the approval of Government. A separate order will issue, in due course, in this respect. The property of the colloge will vest in the State Government in the Department of Education.

4. Sanction of Government is now accorded to the establishment of a sponsored Teachers' Training Colloge to be named as "Ananda Chandra Training Colloge" at Jalpaiguri in the old buildings of the A.C.College, Jalpaiguri with the non-recurring and recurring scales of expenditure as detailed in the annexure.

5. To start with the Colloge may admit 120 trainees, both men and women, including 20 Day Scholars. The number of residential trainees should, however, be limited to 80 at the initial stage.

The trainees may also include teachers deputed from recognised and aided Secondary Schools.

Training provided in the colloge will be free and 50 stipend each of the value of Rs. 40/- per month may be granted to deserving trainees. Approved deputed teachers may also be eligible for stipends in addition to their deputation salary which they should receive from the authorities concerned, the expenditure on this account being treated as approved expenditure for the purpose of grant-in-aid to the institutions concerned. Students residing in the hostel will be required to pay seat rent and electricity charges.
